

DOCTOR OF PUBLIC HEALTH

Entry Requirements

Applicants must fulfill the following conditions:

- Possess a Doctor of Medicine (MD) or Bachelor of Medicine and Surgery (MBBS or MBBCh) or other equivalent medical degrees from any local or foreign university recognized by the Senate, AND
- Possess a Master of Public Health (MPH) or equivalent with a CGPA of not less than 3.2, AND
- Pass all core courses and the research component of the Master of Public Health (MPH) with a minimum score of 65% (Grade B), AND
- Have an Annual Practicing Certificate for local students. While for overseas students, they are required to submit equivalent documents for consideration by the Senate.

Entry requirements for international students:

- Submit a document equivalent to the Annual Practicing Certificate for the Senate's consideration.

APPLY NOW!

CALL US 03 - 9769 2598

EMAIL US mmed.medic@upm.edu.my

WEBSITE <https://medic.upm.edu.my/>

Doctor of Public Health Program is a full-time program for 3 years or 6 semesters. Each semester runs for 6 months or 24 weeks. The maximum period to graduation is 6 years or 12 semesters.

This program prepares public health professionals as a human resource with expertise in the field of public health. The program also provides an opportunity for public health professionals get special training to enhance their careers and meet the high demand for public and private sector for public health human resource professionals who have the expertise in the field of public health.

As a result, graduates of Doctor of Public Health is able to apply knowledge of public health, research and information technology to solve the problem of public health at the local, national and international levels.

FIRST YEAR:

First Semester (26 weeks):

- Three core courses
- Three research courses

Second Semester (26 weeks):

- Four Core Courses
- Two research courses
- Comprehensive Examination

SECOND YEAR:

Third Semester (26 weeks):

- Two research courses
- Two elective courses

Fourth Semester (26 weeks):

- Public Health Clinical Training
- Two research courses

THIRD YEAR:

Fifth Semester (26 weeks):

- Public Health Clinical Training
- Two research courses

Sixth Semester (26 weeks):

- Two research courses

TRAINING METHODS:

Teaching methods:

- Lectures
- Student-centered-learning
- Seminars
- Case studies or case reports
- Opportunity learning
- Public Health Clinical Training (Work-Based Learning)
- Research and dissertation writing
- Publication of scientific papers
- Scientific paper publication

*Students are required to meet the minimum passing requirement of 96 credit hours